CASTLE—In this city, July 14, 1894, Samuel Northrup Castle, a native of New York State, aged 81 years.
OULI—In Hyogo, Japan, June 14, 1894, Mrs. Louise Lewis, the widow, aged 61 years, widow of the late Rev. Luther Halsey Gulick, D. D., agent in China of the American Bible Society.

Laid to Rest.

Mr. Castle's funeral is attended by a large concourse.

The funeral of the late "Father" S. N. Castle took place Sunday afternoon from the family residence, King street. The house was crowded with people of all nationalities and stations in life. The coffin, of plain oak with silver mountings, was placed in the middle of the parlor and was covered with wreaths and flowers, notable among which was a contribution from Mrs. A. S. Willis. The services were conducted by Rev. H. H. Parker, assisted by Rev. Mr. Pearson, and at the conclusion the hymn, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" was sung. Before the coffin was closed those present were permitted to view the face of the venerable departed one for the last time. The features were remarkably natural looking. The interment being about fifty yards from the house, all excepting the aged chief mourners walked to the grave. The pall bearers were Chief Justice A. F. Judd, J. B. Atherton, C. M. Cooke, F. A. Schooner, W. W. Hall, E. C. Jones, Prof. W. D. Alexander, Rev. Dr. Hyde, S. E. Bishop and J. Hoopili. At the grave prayer was offered in Hawaiian by Rev. J. Waiaman, and after a hymn by the Central Union church choir, the remains were laid to rest. Rev. Mr. Parker pronouncing the words of committal. The coffin was carried from the house to the grave by the dead patriarch's sons—William R. George, Jas. B. Hoyle, N. Castle. President and Mrs. Deje, members of the Cabinet, foreign consuls and many other prominent residents attended the funeral.

"KICKED THE BUCKET."

Two Officers Find the Body of a Dead Chinaman.

While patrolman David Kaapa and special Chung Poon were making the rounds of Chinatown on Saturday afternoon, they found a wagon with a Chinaman lying dead in it. The wagon was standing in front of a tinmith store on Maunakea street. Patrolman Kaapa inquired of the proprietor of the store and found out that the dead man had been brought from Manoa. He was in a sickly condition and the one attending him decided to bring him into town. Near the Punahoa school gate the man expired and his body was brought to the owner of the store for orders, as he was in his employ. Kaapa ordered the body brought to the Police Station, from which place he was returned to Manoa.

Alfred Griffiths lately broke the Coast bicycle record in competition with twelve others. The distance was 50 feet over 10 miles and Griffiths covered it in 30 minutes, breaking the previous record of 30 minutes and 15 seconds. As there had been a collision on the track, throwing the wheels all in a heap, this result is all the more admirable. Griffiths rode a Cleveland.

KANS AND CRESCENTS.

Pitcher Woods Admits He Sold the Game.

The Hawaii Baseball League held a special meeting in the office of W. F. Allen at noon to-day, there being a full attendance, a number of players being present. President W. F. Allen opened the meeting, stating its object. It was to consider a protest from the Crescent baseball team. James G. Spencer, secretary, read the communication from the team mentioned, which contained in effect a petition to declare last Saturday's game off, on account of pitcher Woods selling the game.

Before discussing the merits of the protest, Theo. Richards, principal of Kamehameha School, in a few words denounced gambling on baseball, and urged the necessity of a ruling by the league on its occurrence on the league grounds. If, he said, he was convinced that any member of the school team had participated in gambling, he would see that he was banished from the team and from the school for that matter.

Delegate Anderson for the Kamehameha nine wanted to see the matter sifted to the bottom, but was unwilling to declare the game off even if pitcher Woods did really sell the game. He wanted to see equity—according to Blackstone.

Antonio Perry, delegate from the Crescents, had no objection to seeing equity. He was willing to take evidence under oath in the matter. Having obtained leave he asked Woods, the Crescent pitcher, whether it was true he had sold Saturday's game. Woods answered in the affirmative.

After further remarks by different delegates everything was left to be settled between the representatives of the Crescents and Kamehamehas, and they will report to a subsequent meeting of the league. Their decision will be final.

The Kamehamehas defeated the Crescents by a score of 15 to 5 on Saturday, the worst game of the season.

Following is the official score:

GREASE AND POI.

Captain Hookano and a Lieutenant Make a Haul.

Captain Hookano, of the third watch, and his efficient Lieutenant Kanae, made a capture of twenty-six tins of what was thought to be opium last night, in a Chinaman's house on the corner of Queen and Alakea streets. On information procured by Kanae a Chinaman was arrested, it being claimed that he owned the stuff. At the Police Station two tins were punctured and found to contain a mixture of sour poi and lard or some other greasy substance. The Chinaman was locked up nevertheless and the twenty-six tins were stored in the Marshal's office. The man appeared in the District Court this morning and the officers thought they had feathered a nice little nest. The captain and his lieutenant gave evidence telling about how they made the haul and the subsequent arrest and visions of the ultimate "divy" floated before their vision. C. W. Ashford asked that the tins be punctured and the contents be examined. The request was allowed and the contents were all found to be a mixture of the kind just described. The prosecuting attorney promptly asked that the case be not pro'd. The tins had previously held opium. The officers were badly fooled and, for a week at least, it won't be safe to go near either of them with any dope yarn.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS.

Sundry Probate Matters—Contempt of Court.

Before Judge Whiting, the will of the late E. C. Damon is admitted to probate, and letters testamentary ordered to issue to Cornelia B. Damon, widow, without bond. Magoon for petitioner.

The accounts of the estate of Jas. Gay have been referred to Henry Smith, master, for examination and report. C. Brown for petitioners.

The accounts of the Gibson estate have been referred to George Lucas, master, for examination and report.

Judge Whiting's decision in the contempt case against H. N. Castle, editor of the Advertiser, is on file. It holds that a purported news article reflecting on W. H. Aldrich, against whom a contempt case was pending, was more in the nature of editorial than news. The publication is decided to be direct and not constructive contempt. Mr. Castle, being proved to have had no knowledge of the article before its publication, is discharged. C. W. Ashford for the motion; W. R. Castle for respondent.

Judge A. N. Kopekai, of the Second Circuit Court, Maui, is in town. To-morrow will be the last day for service of summons for the August term of First Circuit Court. The jury for the same term was drawn on Saturday before Judge Cooper.

Geo. Lucas, master, is taking evidence this afternoon in the case of J. H. Hannio and others vs. Chas. Kakaiki, suit in equity for accounting from Kona, Hawaii. Achi for plaintiff; C. Brown for defendant.

Sam Hookano has been appointed District Magistrate for Ewa in place of Frank Archer Keliinohopono, being an exchange of that office with that of Deputy Tax Assessor, Archer now taking the latter position.

Judge Cooper has filed a decision in the matter of the estate of George E. Richardson, deceased. His conclusions will indicate the points under consideration. Richardson died April 14, 1892, leaving a widow and four minor children. The widow died April 28, 1892, and on the following day one of the children died. Richardson's will made a division of his estate among the children and his widow, the widow's portion being $400 in full settlement of all her right or other interest in the testator's property.

There were both real and personal property, the latter including two life insurance policies—one payable to his son Edward Vivian, the other to his estate. The personal estate, exclusive of the insurance, was insufficient to pay the debts. Mrs. Richardson, prior to her marriage, had an illegitimate daughter, after which she married C. Hapori of Hilo and by him had a son, Hapai died and she then married Richardson.

On July 27, 1891, Mrs. Richardson executed an instrument conveying all her estate as a married woman to her four children by Richardson. According to the Civil Code a widow for whom provision has been made in her husband's will must elect within six months whether to take her share under the will or be entitled to both unless it plainly appears by the will that such was the intention of the testator. Mrs. Richardson died prior to the probate of the will and without making her election. As the statutory time for making her election had not expired, the Court by this decision makes it for her, being that she takes the dower which is the larger of the two rights.

The insurance policy payable to the estate is subject to the widow's dower. As dower is not the subject of bargain, sale or gift—although capable of being released to one who holds the fee—the Court holds that Mrs. Richardson's conveyance of her right of dower, as mentioned above, was outside of her power. The Civil Code makes every illegitimate child an heir to his mother. It is therefore found that upon the widow's death her estate went equally to the four children of George Richardson, the child of C. Hapai, and the illegitimate daughter. The deceased minor Henry Richardson's property is inherited by his brothers and sisters by the same parents, and his kindred of the half blood are also entitled to inherit with those of the full blood in the estate derived from Mrs. Richardson. The Court finds in conclusion that Mrs. Richardson's estate is now to be divided equally between all of the five children surviving her. Of course it is inferred that, apart from the widow's interest, the will of George Richardson will be carried out as executed.

The accounts of the executor are approved, and he will be discharged on filing the necessary receipts.

W. O. Smith, executor, in person; W. A. Kinney for the illegitimate child.

J. W. Chapman caters for Banquets, Socials, Private Dinner Parties, Wedding or Garden Parties, etc. He will be pleased to call upon any ladies or gentlemen who will kindly address him through the Post Office.

Long and Terrible Illness from Blood Poisoning

Completely Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. Mary E. O'Fallon, a very intelligent lady of Piqua, Ohio, was poisoned while assisting physicians at an autopsy 6 years ago, and soon serious sickness broke out on her head, arms, tongue and throat. Her hair all came out, she weighed but 75 lbs., and saw no prospect of help. At last she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and at once improved; could soon get out of bed and walk. She says: "I became perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla."

HOOD'S PILLS should be in every family medicine chest. Once used, always preferred.
